DESIRED DOCUMENTS DROP INTO THE SEA

Members of the Body Are Furnished With Copies and Original Tapers to Be Inspected at Legal Department.

Austin, Jan. 17.-At the request of the majority of the members of the house Attorney General Davidson Wednesday afternoon took to that body the documents which are alleged to show the relations that that existed between Senator Bailey, H. C. Pierce, the Waters-Pierce Cil company and the Standard Oil company. The attorney general left on file with the house copies of such documents, some of them being photographs, and the members are to go to the attorney general's of-fice and inspect the originals at such time as they may see fit. The matter was left in this shape after a long debate as to what course the house should pursue.

The papers were left with the speak-er, and by him turned over to the A few members inspected them Wednesday. Close friends of Senator Bailey say that there is nothing really new in these copies of the documents left by the attorney general; that most them have been published by him heretofore; that the letters purported to have been written by George Clark and J. D. Johnson were made public in the congressional compaign in the Waco district, although they have not heretofore been given state-wide pub-

The portion of the Standard Oil lication. company code in which Senator Bailey's name oppears they declare to be an unfair exposition, and they assert that if the whole code was published it would probably be found to contain the names of many other senators.

The investigation resolution was turther debated in the house without reaching a vote.

Campbell's message was read in the house and attentively lis-tened to. While it was being read the attorney general and his special assistant, Hon. Jewell P. Lightfoot, who took the testimony against the Waters-Pierce company, entered. The first hore a manuscript and the latter two After the message had been read they were recognized by Speaker Love. The clerk then read the attorney general's response to the house

At the request of Attorney General Davidson Mr. Lightfoot stated that to facilitate the business of the house facsimile copies of the documents had been prepared which the members could examine at once. In answer to an inquiry Mr. Lightfoot stated Mr. Gruett surrendered these documents without being paid a cent.

RANGER REVENUE AGENT.

McDonald Given That Office and Newton Adjutant General.

Austin, Jan. 17.-Captain W. J. Mc-Donald, the old ranger captain, recently made more famous by Senator Foraker in his discussion of the Browns ville negro soldier outrage, will be the next state revenue agent of Texas and J. O. Newton of Milam county will be adjutant general. These appointments were sent to the senate by the governor for confirmation.

WILKES ARRESTED.

Wanted at Dallas to Answer Charge of Stealing Cash.

Boston, Jan. 17.-A search which covered many thousands of miles ended in this city Wednesday in the arrest of James A. Wilkes of Dallas, Tex., who is wanted in that city on a charge of stealing $2,000 from the Wells-Fargo Express company. When arrested Wilkes had $300, and admitted to the police that he took the amount and had spent $1,700 in travel ing about over the country. Wilkes expressed a willingness to return to Texas without requisition papers.

Definite Information From Stricken City on Thursday Was Lacking, Nothing Official Being Received,

New York, Jan. 17 .- The shores of the harbor at Kingston are sinking and there is terror lest the city slip into the sea. According to a private dispatch received by a large mercantile house here from Port-au-Prince, Hayti, the bed of Kingston harbor is said to be sinking and water in many places is now 100 feet deep. Every wharf not destroyed by fire is said to have sunk into the sea or been rendered worthless.

Definite advices as to the extent of the catastrophe at Kingston, Jamaica, were still lacking early Thursday. Conflicting reports received indicated the death list might be anywhere from 100 to 1,000. One dispatch reported 310 bodies had already been recovered and buried. From meager advices that come through it is indicated there is no immediate fear of food famine, as fruit is plentiful, and other Jamaican towns can send aid. Doctors and medical supplies, however, are urgently needed.

Dispatches from London said that up till noon Thursday no further official advices had been received at the colonial office. The only official news received was a telegram from Gov ernor Swettenham, sent Monday and made public Wednesday. Urgent mes-sages have been sent by the British government to Kingston calling for full details of the disaster.

TERMED TERRIBLE.

It Is Also Stated There Is Great Danger of a Famine.

London, Jan. 17 .- During the early hours of Thursday the West Indian and Panama Cable company received a dispatch from its superintendent at St. Thomas announcing the situation at Kingston terrible and a famine im-minent. A dispatch to the Royal Mail Steam Packet company Thursday morning said a relief fund movement had been started in the unaffected portions of the Island of Jamaica. The West Indian committee received a cablegram announcing the safety of Alfred Austin of the Colonial bank at Kingston, whose fate had been in Advices to the committee show increasing extent of damage done by the earthquake, and at the request of the committee the colonial office has taken the initiative in inaugurating a fund for the relief of the sufferers.

CONFINED TO KINGSTON.

That Seems to Have Been the Only Place In Jamaica Damaged.

Holland Bay, Jan. 17. - Advices received from various parts of the island show Kingston to be the only Oil company, Jan. 1, 1907, with a request that if the book be lost it should be returned to him. Then follows a copy of page 246, "Standard Oil company, cipher code," two pages words Jamaica.

STARTLING FACT.

Nearly All Last Fall's Sugar Cane Syrup and Molasses Unmarketable.

New Orleans, Jan. 17.—The fact that probably nearly all the sugar cane syrup and molasses output of Louisiana last fall is unmarketable under a strict interpretation of the pure food law was brought out in correspond-ence made public here Thursday be-tween Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and Louisiana sugar dealers. The dealers pointed out to Mr. Wilson that for fifty years sulphur has been used in this state in treating cane juice for clarification and that because of the widely published, but erroneous statement last fall of the department of agriculture to permit the use of sulprur to continue the crop which is to be marketed during 1907 was made in the old way. In a few instances this product has already been refused by those who contracted to take it, the contrac tors fearing the law.

SCARLET FEVER RAGES.

Thousands of Cases at Chicago and En virons-Epidemic at Evanston.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Scarlet fever is epidemic at Evanston and is a menace to several north shore towns and a source of concern to the Chicago health authorities. Of Chicago's total of 107 contagious diseases reported on Wednesday sixty-live of them were scarlet fever. This is the largest number reported for one day in several At present there are several thousand cases in the city and envi-

SOUTH'S STAPLE GROWERS.

Third Annual Convention of Southern

Cotton Association Meets. Birmingham, Jan. 17.—The third annual convention of the Southern Cotton association began here Thursday morning with a large attendance present, every one of the eleven cotton states being well represented. After an invocation by Rev. Vaughan of Lagrange, Ga., President Harvie Jordan presented Mayor George B. Ward, who welcomed the convention on behalf of the city of Birmingham.

W. H. Seymour, Montgomery, president of the Alabama division, followed in an address of welcome on behalf of his division, saying the question which the association had to deal with was not the production of cotton so much as marketing. He regarded the pres ent convention as the most important one ever held in Alabama, because it one ever held in Alabama, because it had to do with the south's greatest product. "Our cause is a just cause," continued Mr. Seymour. "It is as holy as any cause, for the reason it looks to the welfare of our people. It is right and we must win." right and we must win.

M. L. Johnson of Georgia, president of the Georgia division, responded to the welcome addresses. He said, in part: "My friends, it is a war—not a war of powder and lead, but war requiring much bravery, demanding much brains and calling for much sacrifice and patriotism, nerve, arms and inspired spirits of the Lees, Jacksons and Johnsons, heroes of our lost cause, but a cause never to be forgotten." He said that for forty years the south sub-mitted to being robbed on the price of its chief product because of its povery." For forty years," he continued we paid tribute to Wall street gamblers, spinners of Europe and spinners of our own country. Are you ready for battle against this robbery?

The speaker scored American spinners for allying themselves with the interests of foreign spinners to the detriment and impoverishment of their own people and own consumers. He also pointed out how the government protected other products with a tariff and discriminated against cotton.

President Harvie Jordan then delivered his annual address. He made a number of valuable suggestions and reviewed the condition of the fleecy staple. He scored those who would take an unfair advantage of the cotton

BAILEY'S STATEMENT.

Resolution That Conator Be H Was Agreed To.

Austin, Jan. 17. - A resolution Mr. Cobb and others that Senator Balley be invited to appear before the house and make any statement he may desire with reference to documents delivered by the attorney general and that the attorney general deliver the papers before the bar of the house for that purpose was introduced in the house Thursday.

Mr. Cobb spoke in support of the resolution. He declared it only fair play to let Senator Dailey see the doc-uments and explain. He amended the resolution to permit the senator to come at 2 instead of 11 o'clock.

Mr. Duncan introduced an amendment that Senator Bailey, in connec tion with the explanation, ask the house to make a full, fair and impartial investigation.

Mr. Duncan, speaking to the amendment, said he had no objection to Mr. Bailey making an explanation, but op posed his doing so if it would stop the house from going further into the mat ter. Mr. Duncan wanted Mr. Bailey's statement part of the evidence to be secured b ythe house in the case.

In answer to a question of Mr. Ham flton Mr. Duncan said that the original resolution provided that the investigation be full, fair, and camplete. said he wanted Mr. Bailey to subscribe to the doctrine "a public servant is not a public master."

A sharp debate followed between Messrs. Duncan, Wolfe, Kennedy and Cobb said he was in favor of a free full and fair investigation, but had been misrepresented and maligned by some of the press, which had been given the courtesy of the house. Mr. Cobb declared the Duncan amendment not germaine. He said that "Duncan's crowd was bringing to his side the tro ian horse." Duncan and Cobb engaged in a colloquy, which was spirited.

Mr. Davis of Brazos thought that it would not be fair to Mr. Bailey to put restrictions on his appearance in the

Mr. Cobb said the attorney general was not restricted in his appearance before the house, and Mr. Duncan re-"No. The attorney general waived his rights."

A motion to continue the discussion of the resolution half an hour longer was adopted.

Mr. Hamilton moved the previous question and Mr. Duncan amended regarding Mr. Bailey's entrance into the house. It was a test vote and the Dun-can men won when the vote was concluded, but several members changed their votes to no and the result was announced as 65 against and 60 for the amendment. The Cobb amendment was then adopted unanimously. Mr. Kennedy's motion to reconsider the entire matter was tabled.

The majority of the committee appointed to arrange for a ballot for United States senator reported that an rangements had been made for ballot in each house Tuesday and to meet in joint session Wednesday.

Mr. Green submitted a minority report that the matter be held in abeyance until the United States senator investigation is concluded. Mr. Duncan moved the adoption of the minor

Mr. Hamilton raised the point of order that the Federal statutes made it mandatory to vote for senator next Tuesday. The speaker overruled the poitn of order.

Mr. Alderdice demanded that the Federal statute be read. Mr. Duncan charged that the opposition were wishing the election of a United States senator to take place so not to give a chance for a complete investigation.

Mr. Hamilton claimed that he only made the point of order on the Federal statutes. Mr. Alderdice moved that Mr. Duncan be required to fur nish his authority Friday morning.

Mr. Duncan said he would be able to furnish authorities Friday morning SOMETHING WORTH INVESTIGATING that the senatorial election could be postponed.

Mr. Cobb declared the adoption of the minority report would be unprecedented. He said the legislature had nothing to do but prepare for the election. "even though the bribe discounted." tion, "even though the bribe-givers be not present." (Laughter.)

Mr. Gaines of Comanche asked Mr Cobb if it could be shown to him that the election could be legally postponed the land.

Mr. Gaines said: "Another question If you please. You said we must prepare for the bridegroom. When the bridegroom comes, will the bride have in her lamp?" (Prolonged applause.)

Mr. Cobb paid a tribute to Senator Bailey, and said he would come with head erect and with an open heart. Mr. Cobb denounced so-called yellow journals and held aloft a copy of a Houston paper, in which a cartoon of Senator Bailey was shown,

Action was postponed until Friday merning at 10 o'clock, when Mr. Duncan said he would furnish authorities
